Even the passing of the years does not seem to change the essentials for good living. This is Tercentenary year in the history of secondary education. As in the beginning, so three hundred years later, reverence, obedience, hard work, respect for law, integrity and loyalty are still listed as worthwhile. The members of the class of 1935 might well consider the adoption of a program which will include character traits which have withstood the test of time.

STUDENT ADMINISTRATION

Commission form of self-government was adopted in the fall of 1924 when the institution was again made co-educational. The goal of the governing body has always been to meet the needs of the students and to bring closer cooperation between the faculty, the students, and the administration. In later years a house of representatives has been formed to vote and give its opinion on the procedure of the Commission.

Caroline Roblee

THE COMMISSION

Executive Chairman—Jimmy Mills
Commissioner of Finance—George Dole
Commissioner of Entertainment—Mary Louise Casey
Commissioner of Girls' Welfare—Jean Herbert
Commissioner of Boys' Welfare—Stuart Caldwell
Commissioner of Literary Activities—
Hulda Jeanne Rathgeber
Commissioner of Current Publications—Howard Hays
Commissioner of Records—Renee Holden
Adviser to Commission—Caroline A. Roblee

Elected by the Student Body, the Commission acts as the school representative. Each commissioner is intrusted with an important task and works hard at it. In return for this work he enjoys the honor and prestige of the position. The organization has worked hard as a body and carried on several successful legislative measures for the good of the students and the school.

We feel, this year, that each commissioner has done his particular work cheerfully and to the best of his ability. The pride of our year's work is that we have been able to start school dances in Poly again.

A great deal of whatever credit is due the Commission should go to our faculty advisers, Caroline A. Roblee and Harry K. Young, who have worked so untiringly and willingly with us.

—Renee Holden, '36.

COMMISSIONERS

Jimmy Mills has served efficiently as President of the Student Body and Executive Chairman of the Commission where he acted as an ex-officio member.

Mary Louise Casey has successfully filled the position of Commissioner of Entertainment and Vice-President of the Commission in this, her second year on the Commission.

Commissioner of Girls' Welfare and President of the Girls' League is Jean Herbert. She has presided successfully at girls' assemblies and carried on welfare work excellently.

Stuart Caldwell, Commissioner of Boys' Welfare, has managed ably athletic activities and has done much toward promoting these activities.

The work of this year's Orange and Green has been done by Hulda Jeanne Rathgeber, Commissioner of Literary Activities. She has worked hard all year preparing the year book and should be highly recommended.

Our school paper, the Poly Spotlight, printed every two weeks, has displayed the work of Howard Hays, Commissioner of Current Publications, who has edited the paper.

The two junior Commissioners, George Dole, Commissioner of Finance, and Renee Holden, Commissioner of Records, have managed well their departments, the handling of Commission funds and managing of the A. S. B. store.

GIRLS LEAGUE

President—Jean Herbert
Vice-President—Betty Lackey
Secretary—Phyllis Button
Treasurer—Genevieve Raymer
Social Service Chairman—
Beverly Knapp
Civic Activities Chairman
Virginia Pearse
Citizenship Chairman—Joyce Myers
Program Chairman—Georgia Wells
Girls' Athletic Manager—
Madelon Parker

In every way the Girls League has had a highly successful and beneficial year.

Activities of the fall were numerous including a conference at Los Angeles on the subject, "America's Challenge to Modern Girlhood" at which Poly was represented, two football feeds in the cafeteria, a Welfare Drive at Christmas, a newly furnished girls' lounge, assemblies, etc.

They have continued with the organization of many new clubs, a basketball supper, a spring meeting in Monrovia, the annual vocational conference, Junior High Day refreshments, and a mothers' tea.

All of the girls have found in Dr. Mary Mendenhall, their dean and adviser, a dear friend and a grand helper and it is to her much of the success of the year belongs.

Lots of luck next year
Phyllis Button

Girls League Officers

Jean Herbert, Commissioner of Girls' Welfare and President of the Girls League, acted as chairman of the group and attended the many conferences and exchange programs of the Southern California Girls League. The Vice-President, Betty Lackey, was responsible for the social activities and especially the matinee dance. Phyllis Button, secretary, took charge of the minutes and was head of the "Sunshine" group, which presented programs as the County Hospital and the Woodcraft Home. Genevieve Raymer as treasurer supervised the financial activities. Social service was successfully managed by Beverly Knapp with a large welfare drive at Christmas. Refurnishing the new girls' lounge was under the direction of Virginia Pearse, Civic Activities Chairman. Joyce Myers, Citizenship Chairman, acted as leader of the Girls League Advisory Representative. Many fine assemblies and exchange programs were arranged by Georgia Wells, Program Chairman. Acting as President of the G. A. A. and working with the gym department, Madelon Parker held the position of Girls' Athletic Manager.

BOYS SERVICE CLUB

President—Stuart Caldwell
Councilor of Entertainment—
David Wigley
Councilor of Finance—
Howard Mitchell
Councilor of Records—Charles Lamke

One of the important organizations of Poly is the Boys Service Club which was created six years ago.

This club acts for the general welfare of all boys in the school by encouraging sports, obtaining interesting assemblies, and helping in welfare work.

Everything considered, the club has made the past year much more enjoyable than it otherwise would have been.

ADVISORY REPRESENTATIVES

The governing body of the Associated Student Body is made up of the Commission and the Advisory Representatives who are elected by their classmates. The purpose in organizing the Advisory Representatives was to bring the needs and ideas of the students before the Commission. With the help of their adviser, Caroline A. Roblee, they have completed a good piece of work this year on the A. S. B. play and in arousing spirit for athletic games.

As the class of 1935 entered Poly with the largest enrollment in history, so it left as one of the outstanding classes.

The numerous activities of the year were under the able direction of Bob Hampson, President. The two outstanding successes being the Senior Class Play "Tommy," and Senior Class Night.

The Honor Society gave a large number of gold pins to worthy students as life members in the California Scholarship Federation.

In sports, too, the contribution to the school was well worth while.

For the past three years Miss Esther Brown and Mr. William Bates, have been two exceedingly h e l p f u l class advisers, to them the class extends its sincere gratitude.

—Georgia Wells, Secretary.

Senior Class Officers

The President, Bob Hampson, proved to be a successful and impartial leader. He presided at the class meetings and headed all the various committees. David Wigley, as Vice-President, fulfilled his position. The Secretary-Treasurer, Georgia Wells, had in charge the finance of the class as well as the supervision of Senior Class Night. The main duty of the Social Chairman, Edward Horton, was the preparation of programs for class meetings. Arthur Robson has successfully arranged the interclass debates. The class sports were under the direction of the two Athletic Managers, Bob Corneal and Jane Skelly.

CLASS WILL

Whereas, custom and precedent decree that we, the Class of '35, having completed our allotted years at Poly must say goodbye forever to our beloved alma mater,

Whereas, with a paternal and loving spirit, we feel that our great superiority in mentality, character, and ability over our beloved underclassmen should obligate us to leave them that portion of knowledge, possessions, and abilities which their poor minds may be able to comprehend and use,

We the undersigned, therefore, do collectively and individually, will and bequeath the following:

To the faculty, to whom we will ever be indebted, we leave our deepest appreciation together with the hope that they may sometime again during the next century be blessed with a class the equal of ours.

To the Juniors we leave the right to hope and fight for special privileges (Senior ditch day, passing out of the assembly first) and the right to feel important together with the responsibility of upholding the honor and dignity of the class.

Eugene Arthur (Jimmy to you, you imbecile) Mills leaves his pinwheel with which he has selected all his dates during the past year (lucky gals) to Jimmy Pinkerton.

To next year's Commissioner of Entertainment, Mary Louise Casey leaves her microscope. She will probably need it when she starts looking for good speakers.

Stuart (Man-mountain) Caldwell leaves the basketball team to George Philbert Dole.

To Grace North, Jean Herbert leaves her winning smile and her tube of Colgate's that she may never be troubled with the seven stains.

Bob Hampson leaves his ability to mimic anyone from Harpo Marx to Ben Bernie, to Charles Lamke.

Don (God's gift to women) Bohr leaves what's left of a case of Lifebuoy soap to Joe Beeson.

To Bill Robertson, Pascal Bellah leaves his football in the hope that he may carry it to victory.

To next year's Hi-Tri president, Annabeth Ormiston leaves her bottle of iron glue to enable her to hold her club together with greater ease.

To Margaret Babcock, Beverly Knapp leaves her scholastic ability.

Genevieve Raymer leaves her sparking personality to Virginia Pearse.

Bob Vanderzyl would like to leave some of his prowess to the future generations of tennis aspirants, but he feels that he may possibly need it himself.

To Seymour Buxbaum, Herbert Yoder leaves his manly ways.

To Olive Fisher, Jane Skelley leaves her tennis racket. May she bring home more and better trophies.

Patsy Robbins, the gal who caused our Uncle Sam to move his navy to the Pacific, leaves her well-worn southern accent to her sister Bonnie.

Our dear little Benny Milliken wills his beloved drums to Pete Reed. (Now won't the neighbors be glad?)

Madelon Parker leaves her little booklet, "Too Much Is Enough, or When To Do The Wrong Thing When You're Where You Shouldn't Be," to Ruth Mellor.

We, the mighty class of '35, retain for ourselves the memory of our many happy days in "the best old school on earth," together with what we can of the knowledge to which we have been exposed.

JUNIOR CLASS

President—John Bain
Vive-President—Joe Beeson

Girls' Athletic Manager—Olive Fisher
Debate—Abalene Lockhart

Under the leadership of John Bain, president, with the assistance of Miss Elizabeth Brocksieper and Mr. John I. Engleman, the Junior Class has carried on with flying colors. The chief cause for its success is the willingness of all members to co-operate with their officers in their several activities.

A niche was carved in the wall of Poly's history by the class play. The popular comedy, "Growing Pains" was presented by a splendid cast of twenty-five. The auditorium was packed, the largest audience being present that has ever attended a Poly school play.

This class has been well represented in other activities also, the most prominent of which are sports and music.

The spirit of interest and enthusiasm which the class has shown so far is an index to what Poly may expect from it in the future.

Poly's hope for the future, the Sophomore Class of '37, is the largest to enter the school's portals.

The class is one of outstanding scholarship and most promising athletes, its "Bearlets" having shown great ability on the gridiron.

Under the faithful guidance of Miss Rickard and Mr. Casey, class advisers, the Sophomores have had a most successful year and hope to continue along the same path, ever upholding Poly's traditions.

Inter-Class -- Intramural Sports

Never before has the athletic department of Poly paid as much attention to the intramural sports as it has in 1934-1935. Commencing at the first of the school year, interclass teams have played against each other in their own period; the winners of these period games met after school to meet others of their respective class. In this way football, basketball, volleyball and baseball have drawn more student interest. Coach Neufeld estimates that during the entire year over five hundred students came in direct contact with these games and that more stress will be placed upon them in the future. The partakers this year have made many new friends and have classed this '34-'35 season among their best.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

When Coach Mumma gave the call for football material, fifty boys turned out, most of whom, being Juniors, had little or no experience, yet the team improved as the season progressed and the outlook for next year is bright, with a good part of the team returning.

RIVERSIDE 6; SAN BERNARDINO 6

Riverside outplayed the behemoths from San Bernardino yet they could not get that extra drive that was needed to put the ball over the goal. The Cardinals scored early in the first quarter, when they blocked a Poly punt.

RIVERSIDE 0; REDLANDS 13

By virtue of two beautiful passes the Redlands Terriers defeated Riverside on the loser's field by a score of 13 to 0. The Bears did not seem able to play except in the middle of the field.

Zikratch throws a pass

RIVERSIDE 0; CHAFFEY 13

For the first time in four years the Chaffey Panthers defeated Poly by a score of 13 to 0. This victory put Chaffey in line for their first championship in over a decade. The Panthers scored their touchdowns on running plays.

RIVERSIDE 0; POMONA 13

Pomona defeated the Bears for the twelfth time in thirteen years on the victors' field. The Red Devils completely outplayed the Bears gaining over twice as much territory from scrimmage.

RIVERSIDE 13; SHERMAN 0

The Sherman Indians were the victims of a big upset in this game. The boys got going for the first time this season. Ballard went over for the first touchdown on a pass from Zikratch. The second score was made by a quarterback sneak from the 2-yard line.

Top row—Byran, Philips, Sleeper, Anderson, Mullins, Simpson, Pagliuso, Holcomb, Zaragoza, Becker, Caples, Radford
Middle row—Hileman, Conrad, Babcock, Bosworth, Shea, Brown, Brusca, Grogan, DeCow, Munro, Bigger, Coach Neufeld
Bottom row—Ruddell, Rutledge, Smith, Goodman, Gregor, Garcia, Johnston, Calhoun, Gamblin, Alfaro, Knoefler, Jackson, Mgr. Becker

SOPHOMORE FOOTBALL

RIVERSIDE 0; SAN BERNARDINO 6

Playing on a very wet and muddy field, Coach Neufeld's Sophomore team lost to the San Berdoo Cardettes 6-0.

RIVERSIDE 6; REDLANDS 0

After losing their first league game, Poly's Sophomore gridders traveled to Redlands to win out 6-0. The game was completely mastered by Riverside. Redlands never threatened our goal.

RIVERSIDE 3; CHAFFEY 0

Phil Babcock proved to be the hero of the game by drop-kicking from the 15-yard line, in the closing seconds of play, to score 3 points. The two teams were fairly evenly matched.

RIVERSIDE 6; POMONA 7

The hard charging line and speedy backfield working together in perfect team play allowed the Pomona team to ruin Riverside's chances to tie for the C. B. L. championship.

Top row—Bulgrin, mgr.; B. Bellah, Dole, Jacobsmeyer, Colbert, Caldwell, Vaught, Phillips, Bellah.
First row—Griffith, Coach; Higgins, Peterson, Burch, Pierce, Hysom, Snedden, Horton, Leest, Willson, Reid.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Six games won—two games lost. That was the record hung up by Coach Harry Griffith's casaba tossers this season. Although the Bears did not take the championship they did prove themselves the equal of every team in the league.

This year's team was unusual in that it had three captains, namely, Marty Vaught, Stuart Caldwell, and James Colbert.

SAN BERNARDINO 18; RIVERSIDE 30

Getting off to a good start the Poly quintet spanked the Cardinals of San Bernardino by the score of 30-18. Colbert was high man for Poly with 9 points.

REDLANDS 28; RIVERSIDE 16

Riverside's hope for a championship received a severe jolt when the Redland's Terriers defeated Poly 28-16. Caldwell played a great game. Colbert was Poly's high point man with 8 points.

POMONA 27; RIVERSIDE 20

Poly lost its second straight game to Pomona, 27-20. In this game thirty-eight fouls were called on the two teams. If the Bears had not missed so many foul shots they might have stood a chance to win.

RIVERSIDE 38; CHAFFEY 32

Poly came back with a bang in this game defeating the Chaffey team, 38-32. Colbert, Leest, and Vaught all played a good game for Riverside.

SAN BERNARDINO 20; RIVERSIDE 38

The fast stepping Bears outplayed the San Bernardino team in this game. The whole team played bang-up basketball. Colbert was high point man with eighteen points.

REDLANDS 26; RIVERSIDE 30

In what was probably the hardest fought game of the season the Bears defeated the champion Terriers, 30-26. Riverside was the only team to beat Redlands during the season.

CHAFFEY 26; RIVERSIDE 28

The fast improving Polyites were lucky to win this game by the margin of one basket. Colbert and Leest were high point men with eight points each.

POMONA 24; RIVERSIDE 25

Closing one of the most successful season's in the school's history the Bears defeated the Pomona Red Devils by one point. May next year's team have as much success.

Top row—Hendricks, Coach; Thompson, Gore, Xaragoza, Pagliuso, Stockton, Renfro, Caples, Brummler, mgr.
First row—Jordan, mgr.; Jones, Wattles, Roth, Babcock, Goodman, Mullins, Radford

SOPHOMORE BASKETBALL

Riverside 15	San Berdoo 13	Riverside 16	San Berdoo 8
Riverside 9	Redlands 21	Riverside 11	Redlands 22
Riverside 16	Pomona 7	Riverside 22	Chaffey 17
Riverside 14	Chaffey 10	Riverside 22	Pomona 3

The casaba tossers of the Class of 1937 have played extremely well this year. The position of the Sophomores depended upon the outcome of the second of the Chaffey games. Winning two games each from San Bernardino, Chaffey, and Pomona, they ranked second to the invincible Redlands Terriers.

Captain Babcock not only had a very splendid team, but played each game in an excellent manner. Caples from University Heights played a very good game against the Pomona Devils, sinking three baskets. Other outstanding members included Roth, Holbrook, and Renfro. Each game brought out the fine sportsmanship of the team.

Both Clarence Hendricks of Central and Harry Griffith of Poly had the guardianship of this team for which the Sophomores are very grateful. Coach Hendricks says that there is a bright outlook for next season.

Top row—Neufeld, Nelson, Thompson, Berry, Anderson
Middle row—Sumrall, Arrechea, Smith
Bottom row—Hata, Hastings, Arrechea

CROSS COUNTRY

The Riverside Polytechnic cross-country team had one of the best seasons in years, winning first place in the C. B. L.

In the C. B. L. meets Ted Hastings made first with Delbert Harris, third; Ferdinand Arrechea, sixth; and Cordner Nelson, seventh. These equal in Poly rating as first to fourth inclusive.

In the interclass cross-country Hastings, a junior, took first place again. Arrechea and Nelson of the senior class rated second and third while Smith, a sophomore, came in fourth, followed by O. Sumrall as fifth.

Coach Bill Neufeld expresses his gratitude for the fine cooperation shown and the team is equally grateful to him.

Top row—Wells, Rangel, Jeffery, Pinkerton, Lamke, Bain, Brown, Powers
Third row—Shrode, Campbell, Caldwell, Thompson, Nelson, Milburn, Hysom, Sanard
Second row—Sumral, Dole, Arrechea, Hata, Captain Mills, Hysom, Forato, Green

VARSITY TRACK

CHAFFEY 52 1-3; RIVERSIDE 51 2-3

With a good majority of his point-winners returning Coach Mumma has prospects of a very good team next season.

SAN BERNARDINO 41; RIVERSIDE 61

The Bears had very little difficulty in overcoming the Cardinals. Both Mills and Jeffrey helped the Bears' cause by scoring double victories.

CHAFFEY INVITATIONAL

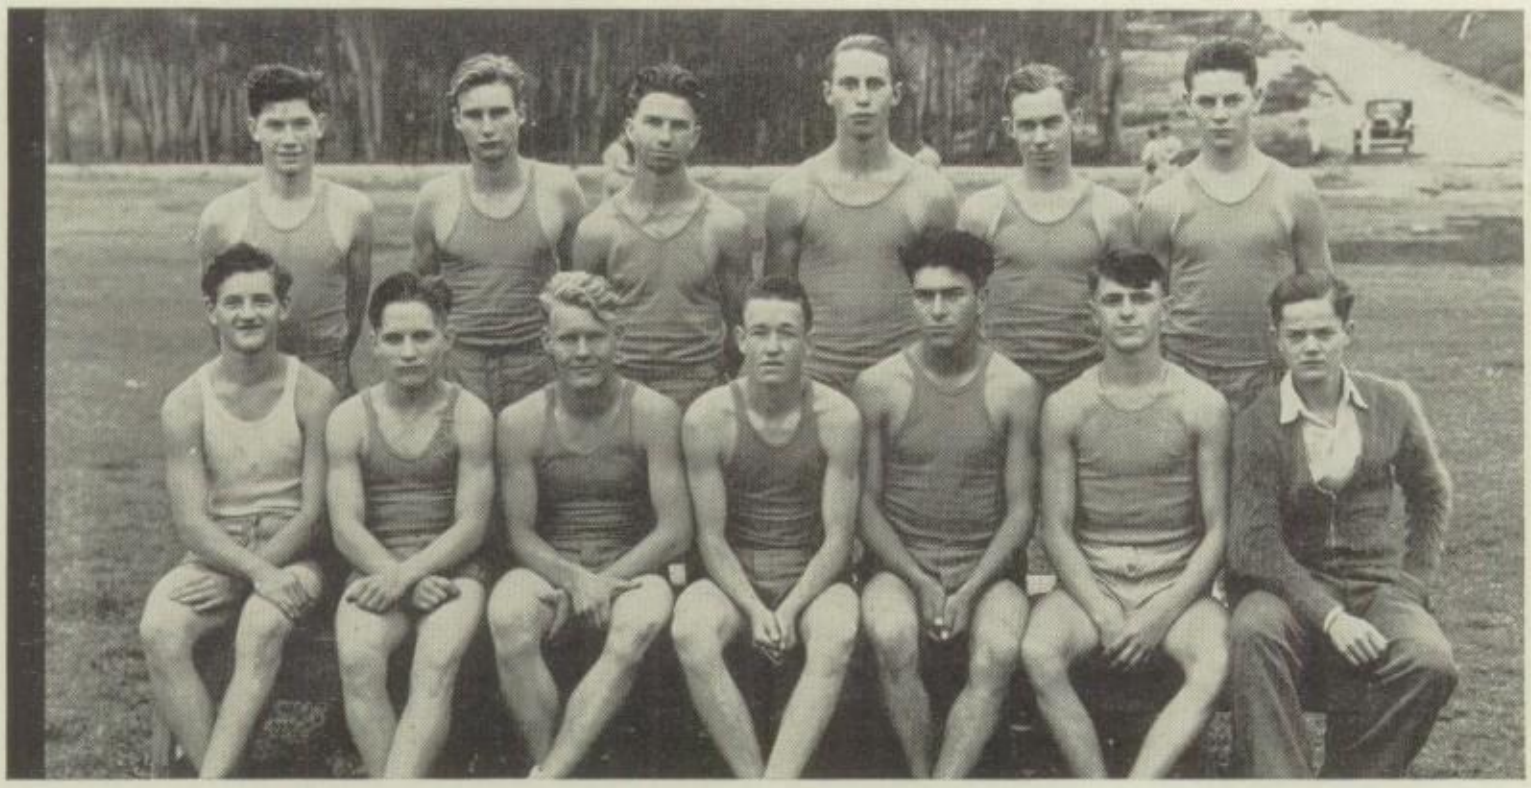
Riverside had a fairly successful day scoring 10¼ points for fifth place. Jeffrey in the sprints, Brown in the broad jump, Mills in the hurdles, and Vaught in the high jump all scored points for Poly.

RIVERSIDE 83; POMONA 26

The fast-stepping Poly tracksters took 10 out of 12 firsts to smother the Red Devils 83-26. The only bright spots in this dull, slow meet were a 53 second 440 yard run by Parry and a jump of 5 feet, 11¾ inches in the high jump by Marty Vaught.

Ahead by 4⅓ points before the running of the relay the Bears succumbed to the powerful Panther track team by a close score. The only double winner for the Polyites was Jeffrey in the sprints.

Coach Mumma's cohorts showed lots of strength in placing second to the invincible Chaffey Panthers in the annual C. B. L. meet. Brown and Jeffrey scored double wins for Riverside for 18⅓ points. If Riverside could have scored 8 more points they would have won the track meet. Those who made points for Poly were Mills, Rangel, Jeffrey, Pinkerton, Parry, Stocking, Hastings, Nelson, Brown, and Burch.



Top row—Monroe, Stickel, Simpson, Babcock, Hadley, De Cow

SOPHOMORE TRACK

This year's Sophomore track team showed much ability in several events. The Bearlets did splendidly in the annual Chaffey Invitational taking fifth place, while at the annual C. B. L. track meet they took fourth place.

The outstanding members of the squad were Anderson, the freshman from Central Junior High, who placed in the high jump; Pendergraph, the speedy hurdler; Smith, the middle distance runner; Hadley, the high jumper; and Jones, the shot-putter.

These Sophomore cinder-men will undoubtedly provide much excellent material for next year's varsity track team.

Top row—Smith, James, Horton, Harmon, Vanderzyl, Bohr, Morris, Seibel
Bottom row—Goodman, Reed, Gould, Wilson, Cook, Woods, J. Horton

BOYS' TENNIS

Poly succeeded in winning the C. B. L. championship this year for the first time in five years. The Bear netmen decisively defeated Redlands 15-4, Chaffey 11-8, San Bernardino 13-6, and Pomona 18-1.

Captain Bob Vanderzyl, first singles player, was the most outstanding player of the year, having lost only one set during the season. He has been Poly's top player for four years and during that time has not lost a match.

Donald Bohr, second singles, proved a valuable player by losing only one match all season.

Fred Wilson, playing third singles, won all of his matches, and in addition he saved the Chaffey match and possibly C. B. L. championship by his exceptional playing against Chaffey.

Alfred Morris, and William Seibel won easy victories at second doubles.

The members of the tennis team wish to thank Bruce Casey for his unselfish effort in giving his time and support to the coaching of the team. If it were not for Coach Casey's interest Poly would not be represented in school competition.

"A sport for every girl and every girl for a sport" has been the motto of the Girls' Athletic Association for several years and was successfully fulfilled by the girls and coaches this year.

INTER-CLASS SPORTS

Speedball—Geraldine St. Marie
Hockey—Carol Frost
Baseball—Eva Elmlund
Volleyball—Betty Bigger
Tennis—Jane Skelley

Through interclass sports the girls have developed themselves in sportsmanship and in ability. Under the instruction of the coaches many fine teams were made and the competition between classes was close.

The girls came out for all the sports although the varying weather sometimes tried to keep them away.

Tennis is the only sport which is not interclass yet it is the only inter-school sport which the girls have.

These sports were sponsored by the G. A. A. and with the aid of the coaches, Misses Grace Ketcham, Edna Graber, and Dorothea Tefft, these after school sports have been a success.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Basketball heads the sport calendar. It has been considered the favorite sport of many of the girls. Although the Juniors won the championship the other two classes had stiff competition.

HOCKEY

Under the instruction of Miss Tefft, the hockey turn-out this year has been near the one hundred mark. The sport is new to the Sophomores, but they have developed a fine sense of the game.

Girls' Baseball and Volleyball

Closing the calendar are baseball and volleyball each with large turnouts. They are under the direction of Miss Graber this year and end a successful year of sports.

Old English May Festival

On May 8 the girls' physical education department staged the first May Festival ever attemped in Poly High. It was a big success and was a splendid culmination of the weeks of training and planning.

The G. A. A. sponsored the affair and members of the board headed all committees. The splendid cooperation of every girl was a big factor in the success of the day.

Candidates for May Queen were chosen from the eligible senior girls of G. A. A. but all girls in the school were urged to vote. As a result of the votes cast, Madelon Parker, G. A. A. president, was given the honor and other candidates, Nora Brandt, Jean Herbert and Jane Skelley were made lords and ladies of the court.

The festival was presented in the junior college quadrangle which formed a beautiful natural setting for such an event. The attractiveness of the setting was enchanced by the profusion of flowers and greenery around the throne. Then the hundreds of lancers in their gay and many colored costumes scattered over the grass added greatly to the picture.

Court buglers heralded the opening of the festival and the court announcer, Annabeth Ormiston, advanced to the center of the green. With a deep bow she welcomed the guests in a gay verse which gave the keynote for the day. Immediately the Queen and her court of flower girls, lords, ladies, pages, crown bearer, and court jester, formed a processional which led across the green to the steps of the throne.

After the crowning of the Queen the court entertainers wove their spell with many dances of the period, a fencing bout, an archery contest, and stunts by the court tumblers. The musicians contributed their share and in and out of all numbers the court fool added a comedy touch with her antics.

GIRLS' TENNIS

Opening the C. B. L. season this year, the girls' tennis team defeated their first opponent, Pomona, 7-12 and lost a second match to Redlands, 12-7. In their third meet of the C. B. L. they lost to San Bernardino, 13-6. Playing the last match of the year the team was defeated by Chaffey, 13-6. Practice matches were held with Colton, Covina, Scripps College, and University of Redlands.

The team was composed of Juniors and Seniors. The Seniors being Evelyn Coulter, who has played on the team for three years; Pauline Seinturier and Jane Skelley, tennis manager, who have both played two years. Outstanding among the Juniors are Marion McWilliams and Olive Fisher both playing their second year on the team, and Barbara Rowe, a newcomer this year, who has done some fine playing.

There have been good turnouts for both beginners and intermediate tennis. Returning lettermen and outstanding players among these groups will make up next year's team.

The girls' tennis team was ably coached by Miss Dorothea J. Tefft, while Miss Grace Ketcham and Miss Edna Graber directed the intermediate and beginners groups respectively.

Mills Newell May

R. O. T. C.

Although the enrollment is somewhat less than last year, the R. O. T. C. has an even better spirit, which naturally leads to a more smooth working unit.

The program, as outlined for the year, included an average of two days a week drill, two days of theoretical instruction, and one day for organized athletics. Company and platoon drill competition was held, with outside judges to determine the winner.

Two public appearances were made by this organization on Armistice Day, November 11, and Memorial Day, May 30, when they joined with the local patriotic groups in making the parade a success. On both occasions, comment on the fine appearance and discipline were heard from many sources. To Captain O. C. Newell and Sergeant John W. May goes the credit, for, without their supervision, the R. O. T. C.'s fine showing would be impossible.

Having its year's work investigated, annual inspection of the unit takes place in the last quarter of the school year, with every man striving to make an honor unit for Poly.

The unit had an additional inspection by General H. H. Arnold, commander of the Western Wing of the G. H. Q. Air Force, at which time a review was given in his honor. He spoke words of encouragemnt and praise to the men.

LATIN CLUB

Curriculus Classicus had a splendid year with increased membership since all students of Latin were invited to become members, irrespective of grades. Monthly programs and business meetings were held.

The Roman banquet planned by the social chairman, Margaret Corey, was particularly enjoyable. The decorations, costumes, and the menu of this unique banquet were Roman style and created the atmosphere of a banquet held in Rome over two thousand years ago.

MODEL BOAT CLUB

President—Arthur Robson

Secretary—Robert Paschke

Adviser—Kenneth B. Stoever

At the beginning of this school year the Model Boat Club was organized. A charter was applied for and granted by the Associated Student Body, making the club a permanent organization at Poly. Interesting meetings have been held during which both scale and working models of the members were shown and discussed along with plans and the intricacies of model building.

PRINT SHOP

During the school year of 1934-1935, the vocational print shop has accomplished a great deal under the capable leadership of N. O. Moore and H. N. Hammond.

The print shop has done much in a capable manner for the other departments of the school. Printing the Spotlight bi-weekly, the Orange and Green, and other work for the entire Riverside School District. Its largest outside project for this year was printing 4000 cook books for the junior high schools.

MACHINE SHOP

The machine shop students are well pleased with the new shop, although the equipment is not all in operation. It is felt that the improvement over the old shop is one to be proud of.

At the first of the year, the work was along construction lines, placing machinery and equipment; but at the latter part the class did some work in tool making and other regular school projects.

SENIOR AUTO SHOP

Since the Senior Auto Shop class has had the advantage of one year's practical training, the students are capable of doing more complex jobs, and are expected to assume more responsibility.

It is the object of the instructors to create in their students such desirable traits as initiative, punctuality, cleanliness, cooperation, and the habit of taking proper care of the tools and machinery.

AUTO SHOP

Auto shop is a vocational course in auto mechanics for students who desire to become skilled in this trade.

During a complete two year course, three periods each day being devoted to practical shop work, and one period to the study and discussion of modern engineering principals, the student becomes acquainted with all the different phases of auto repair service. He also develops many habits of good shop practice, such as care of tools and machinery, cleanliness, and accuracy.

THE LITTLE THEATER

One of the most interesting rooms in the school is the Little Theater. Once only a basement, it was adopted in 1929 by the Dramatics classes as their classroom. Various improvements during the following years have so transformed it that no one would ever suspect it was formerly just a basement.

With tireless and unceasing effort V. S. Dalrymple has worked in the interests of Drama in order that the students of Poly may have a better understanding and a deeper appreciation of the art of acting which is countless ages old. Under this course the students also develop their poise and stage presence and recover from any "stage fright" they may have. Beside all these advantages, the Little Theater people enjoy their work, and almost everyone gives his cooperation willingly to the group—not only in the class assignments but also in the giving and receiving of helpful criticism.

BIG HEARTED HERBERT

The Student Body of 1934-1935 presented "Big Hearted Herbert," a comedy in three acts directed by V. S. Dalrymple. A capable cast helped this first play of the year to be a success. The business end of the play was efficiently handled by Mary Louise Casey, business manager; Jimmy Mills, advertising manager; Hulda Jeanne Rathgeber, ticket manager; Doris Ashby and Renee Holden, programs; and Delno Retherford, stage manager.

GROWING PAINS

"Growing Pains," a delightful and entertaining comedy put on by the Junior Class, scored another hit for V. S. Dalrymple, dramatics instructor. This play not only brought to light new talent, but also filled the house. The business staff consisted of John Bain, Ed. Swafford, Ralph Sauer, Leslie Miner, and Bernice Freel.

Velzey, Torgerson, Fydell, Skiver, Bayz, Casey, Stephenson, Corneal, Robbins, Yoder, Ormiston

THE WOODEN KIMONO

A thrilling mystery play, "The Wooden Kimono," was the contribution of the dramatics classes. The set, designed and built by the stagecraft class, was very well done and lent atmosphere to the play. An unusually fine cast made the play a success. The business end of the play was handled by the dramatics classes under the direction of Business Manager Dorothy Morrison and Advertising Manager Genevieve Raymer.

THE GONDOLIERS

Gilbert and Sullivan's delightful opera, "The Gondoliers," was produced this year by the High School Glee Clubs.

The cast consisted of eighteen characters and the rest of the members of the organization made up the stage chorus, ushers, and auxiliary chorus. The production was a musical as well as a financial success; thus adding another laurel to the history of Poly High activities.

DEBATE

Each class has its debate manager; the Senior, Arthur Robson; Junior, Ablene Lockhart; and Sophomore, Bruce Casey. Malcolm Conner is the manager for interscholastic debating. Their duties are to decide upon topics and to take charge of tryouts.

This year the Juniors proved to the Sophomores that the League of Nations was a success. Following that, the the Juniors and Seniors fought it out on the subject, Resolved: That Hitler was justified in his denouncing the Versailles Treaty.

Dr. O. W. E. Cook has ably coached and tutored the teams before the contests and chaperoned them when away from home.

DEBATING TEAM

Debating has always been considered a major activity at Poly. The team feels that this year has been a success although they won only one debate and five judges' decisions.

Dan Waite, after debating twice last year, was the only veteran. He and Malcolm Conner participated in both rounds, each round consisting of four debates, two for each team. Abelene Lockhart, Lillian Jordan, Eddie Collins, and Jack Ward took part in only one round.

ORATORY

Poly was well represented in the contest of the National Forensic League held at Redlands University in April. Dan Waite and Malcolm Conner were entered in the original Oratorical Contest, placing tenth and ninth respectively. Seymour Buxbaum and Ablene Lockhart spoke in the Declamation contests, Seymour placing eighth, Jack Ward and Fred Morey were in the extempore contest.

Poly's representative in the Peace Oratorical contest was Malcolm Conner. In an elimination contest held at Poly Ablene Lockhart received second. Other contestants were: Dan Waite, Seymour Buxbaum, Lyndon Andrews, and Eddie Collins.

PUBLICATION ADVISERS

La Ribera, the Booklovers Annual, the Poly Spotlight and the Orange and Green make up the literary publications sponsored by Poly students. Those publications would not be possible if it were not for the helpful and inspirational work of the advisers. To the advisers, Louis List, Miss Leslie Fowler F. Wayne Coons, and Kenneth B. Stoever we want to express our sincere appreciation of their many years of outstanding work.

Rathgeber | Dorr | Mellor

ORANGE AND GREEN

Each year the editor plans a theme around which to build the Annual; and the staff works hard to carry out this theme, each member doing his part successfully. It is the hope of the entire staff that, as you turn the pages of this book, it will bring back to you as many pleasant memories as it does to them.

The efficient work of the business and advertising staffs has aided in making this publication a financial success, but it is to our advisers that we owe the most. We want to thank Kenneth B. Stoever especially for the many hours spent in taking and printing the fine photographs used throughout the book. To N. O. Moore, printing adviser, Miss Althea Williams, art adviser, and H. K. Young, financial adviser, we wish to express our gratitude for their unfailing help and encouragement in publishing the 1935 Orange and Green.

POLY SPOTLIGHT

Starting early in the year by winning first place for the best front and sports pages in its class at the Southern California High School Press Association convention at Long Beach, the Poly Spotlight continued throughout the year to live up to its motto, "We Go Grow As We Go."

A number of special issues were published, including a Junior edition, a freak edition, known as the "Bear Hangovers," a girls' edition, an edition celebrating the tercentenary of high school education, and a senior edition.

All members of the staff gave many hours towards the success of the Spotlight. Securing ads, always a difficult job, was particularly hard this year. Special credit in this department should be given to Philip Harris and Laura Jane Brown. The Juniors proved themselves exceptional "ad-getters," securing more for their edition than any other.

F. Wayne Coons, journalism instructor, N. O. Moore and H. N. Hammond, printing instructors, ably assisted and advised in all Spotlight work.

BOOKLOVERS CLUB

Membership in the Booklovers Club is automatically that of the English IV classes. Monthly programs have been presented by outside visitors of interest and distinction.

The Booklovers Annual, which so far has maintained first place among special publications judged in competition by the Southern California Press Association, will make its sixth appearance just after the publication of this number of the Orange and Green.

LA RIBERA

Desde que La Ribera salió a la luz, el cuerpo editorial ha tratado de introducir mejoras. No sólo se notan éstas en el contenido de La Ribera sino también en la apariencia general del periódico. Las mejoras en este año escolar han sido muy evidentes. Se ha introducido un vocabulario pequeño al fin de cada artículo para ayudar a los estudiantes de los años primero y segundo a entender los artículos con mayor facilidad. La página para los principiantes ha sido más congruente a nivel de los estudiantes del primer año. Esa página además de cuentecitos fáciles también contiene chistes, rompecabezas, palabras cruzadas y otros expedientes para excitar el interés de los principiantes al español y a cosas de España y de la América-española. Los artículos que tratan de las misiones de California sirven para despertar el interés de los estudiantes a la civilización y a la cultura española que los padres trajeron a estas regiones. Asimismo para acordar a los estudiantes de la obligación que los americanos deben a los colonistas españoles que fueron los primeros de la raza blanca para ocupar estas partes y para tranformar el desierto en tierra productiva. La vida de España y de los otros países hispánicos se refleja con más claridad, y el contenido es más variado. Los dibujos reproducidos en las ediciones de este año han sido una mejora incontestable. "La Bandera de la Raza," "La Santa María," "La Bandera de la República Californiana" y "Por la Ruta de los Padres" son dibujos que tratan de varios tiempos de la historia de España, y aclaran y aumentan el valor de los artículos que tratan de estos períodos.

Este año La Ribera participó en una contienda que se verifica anualmente en Columbia University de Nueva York. En esta contienda participan publicacaciones estudiantiles en idiomas extranjeros de todas partes de los Estados Unidos. La Ribera ganó el primer lugar y fué premiado con una medalla la que es el orgullo del cuerpo editorial

PROPHECY

San Francisco's World Fair of 1949 celebrating the centennial of the gold rush was a brilliant and popular affair. People from all over the country were going so I naturally followed the crowd. The very first building I entered at the Fair was a replica of Sutter's Fort, and who should greet me but Ralph Knight, wearing a pioneer outfit and posing as big burly James Marshall. Ralph always was a bit husky you remember. He directed me to the check room and there amidst the hats and coats stood none other than Lillian Jordan. She had married Ralph and the two of them were running the exhibit. Seeing two such Polyites elated me and I rushed outside to see if I could locate more. Sure enough, I was no sooner outside than a sedan chair propelled by Howard Hays nearly knocked me down. He took me to the Science building, the home of Robert Frost's super machine that is so complex no one as yet knows its exact use. It is a marvelous affair just the same and interested me greatly; at least it makes a lovely noise.

Prophecy

A huge crowd at the other end of the building soon arrested my attention and I rushed to the scene to see what wonder could be creating so much excitement. I saw a pile of rocks and minerals and there in the center our old A. S. B. Prexy Jimmy Mills was violently gesticulating and shouting in an effort to explain to his poor ignorant listeners just how this old world was formed. I assumed an intelligent expression and tried to get the point but I fear it was too involved for my poor mind.

In the electrical department I found Chester Knoll painfully, but patiently explaining to Mary Louise Casey and Rosemarie Merrill just how they should have constructed their radio for Mr. Ohmen way back in 1935. The girls seemed puzzled but after all they haven't done so bad. Rosemarie is the world's champion endurance flyer, and Mary Louise is the distinguished owner of a prize collection of guinea hens.

I was about to leave the building in search of new excitement when I literally bumped into Dave Wigley and Don Bohr on their way to the chemistry department in search of much needed aid for final examinations at Stanford. If these examinations could be passed a long career of faithfully serving the University as yell leaders would be ended. The boys rather hoped this would be the case. After all, even yell leading has its limitations.

A morning at the fair is tiring and I sought sustenance to carry me through the day. At a lunch stand on the midway I was surprised to find Dorothy Brown and Janet Dahle dishing out bean soup and hash. There perched on a stool was Jackson Ingham choking down his food in hast to keep an appointment with New York's most famous stunt flyer, Wilbur Helmer, to sell him some life insurance. Jack said Wilbur had just hopped over for the day so he had to be sure to catch him.

After lunch in the general exhibits building, I found Forrest Fowler in the Art Department displaying some of his original printings. Across the aisle Hulda Jeanne Rathgeber, who had just returned from the diplomatic service in British Guiana, was giving an address on her experiences and impressions of that country. She was launching into a detailed account of the political situation so I used my better judgement and left. Outside, I met Howard again, who suggested I go that night to the new Silver Spray Cafe that Perez Hayden, noted night club proprietor, had opened on the fair grounds.

That evening at Perez's night club I was greeted by the head waiter, Bob Hampson, who ushered me to a choice table where I could see all the feature attractions. Laura Jane Brown made a charming hostess and the orchestra directed by our former Poly trumpeter, Franklin Wylie, was superb. Franklin introduced the master of ceremonies, Holmes Halma, who announced the numbers of the floor show. The program included a specialty dance by the night club favorite; Claire Kelley and soul inspiring singing on the part of Max Melin.

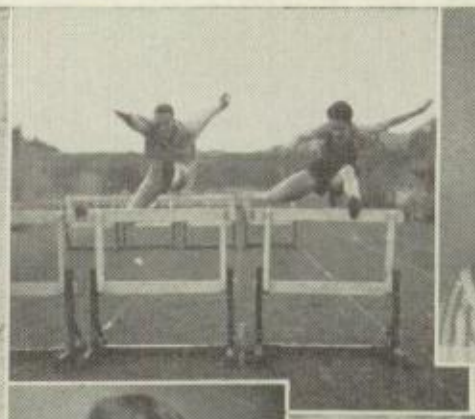
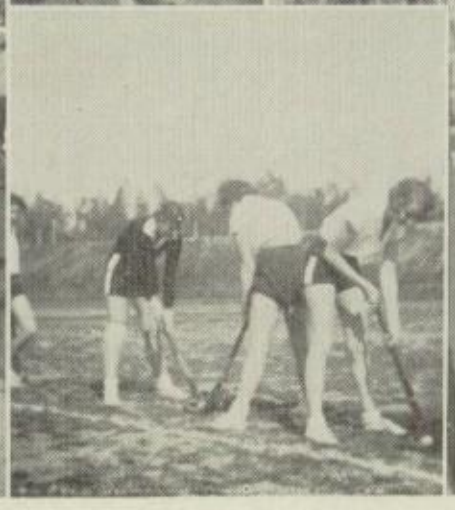
No sooner had Franklin resumed the dance music than I saw Stuart Caldwell, Georgia Wells, Ellis Faulhaber, and Jean Herbert tripping the light fantastic. Seated at tables around the floor I noticed Bob Paschke, Gertrude Sutton, Stanely Jacobsmeyer, and Betty Hucklebridge. Not a bad representation if you ask me. I was very pleased over finding so many friends in one day and was prepared to enjoy myself thoroughly when Pat Evens dashed into the limelight with a wild look in her eye crying "Fire," Immediately all was in confusion and two minutes saw the whole party huddled on the pavement outside. No blaze was to be seen and we were feeling disappointed when up popped Pat and yelled "Surprise." After that the evening fell flat. Can you blame me for going back to my hotel?

The Rowdy

By JEANETTE ALLEN

Gather 'round me closely,
  And I'll tell you one and all
Of a pestilential creature
  Who goes ambling down the hall.
Oh, he flirts with all the coeds,
  And they think him quite a dear;
What the teachers think about him
  You are much too young to hear.
Oh, he's late to all his classes;
  Still, he has a good excuse;
But when it comes to quizzes—
  Well, he's just a bit obtuse.
Now you could hardly miss him,
  For he stands out from the mass;
And now I shall present him—
  Hail, the Rowdy of our class!





The Beauty

And now I speak with reverence
  Of one divinely tall,
A maid who walks in beauty—
  The peeress of us all.
Her eyes are limpid pools of love,
  Her smile is sheer delight,
Her hair cascades in shining curls,
  (She puts it up at night.)
But her story smacks of tragedy,
  And it is fraught with pain;
Alas! This queen of beauty
  Was born without a brain!

The Student

And now we meet a fellow—
  A lad who's good and bright;
He always has his lessons
  (He studies half the night.)
He likes to do his Latin
  And quite enjoys a quizz
He says math is a pastime
  And Shakespeare is a whizz.
He knows the law of gravity
  And why the world is broke
In fact, I think he knows too much
  I wish the rat would choke!

Advertising

The Orange and Green staff wishes to express its appreciation to the advertisers who, through their patronage, have helped to make this twenty-third edition of the Annual a financial success. May they have the sincere good will of every Poly High student.

HOME LIGHTS

The wistful stars that one by one
Jet Heaven's hills with light,
Are like the little lamps of love
That mothers set at night
On window-sills,
That those they love
May guide their steps aright!

So like
A little lamp that shone
For me, in days of yore—
So like a little lamp that shines,
On earth, for me
No more!

And when at evenfall, the stars
Dark hills of Heaven jet,
They are not stars to me, but lamps
That waiting mothers set
On window-sills,
Of Heaven—
That we may not forget!

Dear Wallace:

We have went through Junior High and graduated together and now we have gone through high school together and now the excitment of Graduating now. We had a darn last 7 yrs in Jr. High together. Remember my birthday party that was suppose to be a surprise that surely had a nice time and ooook the eats. We have been some what separated during our high school yrs but never the less have still remained friends through it all.

Here's wishing you the best of luck for your future life.

Your pal and friend.
